DATA SOURCES

Commercial Bank Head Office Reports (LKPBU) and Nonbank Reports (LSBU).

METHODOLOGY

Collection and Calculation Method:

- Data concerning number of EDC machines, number of electronic money readers, number of merchants, volume of transaction volume and value of transaction is collected from the reports submitted online by banks and nonbank financial institutions issuers of ATM cards, ATM+Debit cards, Electronic Money and Acquirers via the Commercial Bank Head Office Report (LKPBU) and Nonbank Report (LSBU) applications.

Recording method:

- Data concerning number of EDC machines, number of electronic money readers and number of merchants represents the amount of machines at the end of the reporting period.
- Data concerning volume of transaction and value of transaction represents the accumulated volume and value of transaction data during the reporting period.
